RARE WHISKIES FROM JAPAN

A journey, encounters and an international twist: Japanese whiskies, Belgian know-how, cocoa beans from Cuba & Sao Tomé, hazelnuts from Piedmont and Spanish almonds

Nikka Coffey Malt

A praliné of Piedmont hazelnuts flavored with Nikka Coffey Malt, a rich, woody whisky with gourmet notes of coffee and vanilla, topped with an almond and coffee praline.

Nikka Miyagikyo Single Malt

Hazelnut praliné flavored with Nikka whisky, aged in sherry casks with floral aromas, topped with an almond, ginger and cardamom praline.

The Chita

Caramel flavored with The Chita, a round, light whisky, topped with gianduja and a hint of Madagascar vanilla.

Togouchi Kiwami

*Hazelnut praliné flavoured with Togouchi Kiwami, a whisky with sweet notes of honey, lightly smoked, accompanied by a lightly smoked Piedmont hazelnut praliné.
Notes: honey, melon*

Suntory Toki

Caramel with Suntory Toki whisky, a blend of 3 distilleries with notes of grapefruit and peppermint, topped with a light, airy Piedmont hazelnut praliné.

The Yamazaki Distiller's Reserve

*Caramel flavored with Yamazaki whisky, Japan's oldest and most legendary distillery, topped with an almond praliné and roasted rice.
Notes : peaty, balanced, smoky*

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE (1/2)

General Terms and Conditions of Sale - Maison Pierre Marcolini

1. Application and enforceability of the general terms of sale

These general terms and conditions of sale are brought to the attention and acceptance of each customer, to enable them to place an order with Pierre Marcolini by means of a quote. Consequently, the fact of confirming the order implies full and unreserved acceptance of these general conditions of sale. No special conditions or other general conditions emanating from the customer may, without the express agreement of Pierre Marcolini, prevail over these conditions.

2. Order confirmation

The order is validated internally once our teams have received the quotation dated and signed by the customer, the full payment or, failing that, a deposit of 50% of the total amount of the order, the invoicing and delivery information for the order, and any cards that may accompany the order.

The quotation is no longer accepted if the validity date of the offer, mentioned on the offer, is exceeded.

Each product request is subject to acceptance by Maison Pierre Marcolini, which reserves the right to decline any order due to insufficient stock, incomplete customer information or any other legal reason.

The execution of an order is always subject to the availability of goods, capacity and production planning. Delivery times are indicative, without any commitment on our part. Pierre Marcolini reserves the right to refuse any new order from a customer who has not settled his arrears of payment and the right to demand the settlement of all outstanding invoices before any new order.

The right of withdrawal does not apply to contracts for the supply of perishable food products, such as our products. Therefore, the customer may not avail himself of this right.

From the moment the order is ready to be sent to our workshops, no cancellation can be taken into account and the price paid will not be refunded.

3. Pricing policy

The prices indicated on the quotation are expressed in euros excluding VAT. To these prices, the Belgian VAT of 6% on food products and 21% on other products such as sleeves, cards, bags or delivery costs are applied. Our delivery rates depend on the destination, weight and volume of the package. The products are subject to the price conditions in force on the day the quotation is signed. The general price list may be freely revised by Pierre Marcolini.

4. Payment on order, deposit and cash payment

In order to be validated, the order must be paid in full, or have been the subject of a minimum deposit of 50%. Unpaid orders cannot be delivered unless our teams have expressly indicated specific conditions.

Unless otherwise agreed, our invoices are payable in cash at our domicile in Brussels, no claim shall entitle the customer to withhold payment.

We do not accept cheques.

5. Unavailability of products

The availability of the products is given to the customer at the time the quotation is drawn up. It only becomes definitive when the order is confirmed.

6. Delivery of the products

A minimum period of preparation of the customer's order is required from the date of receipt of the signed quote and the corresponding payment. This period varies according to the time of year, the quantities ordered and the desired personalization. The actual date of availability of the products will be confirmed to the customer by our sales department. In the case of a multi-address order, no modification (delivery date, cancellation or change of products, cancellation or change of delivery address) will be possible within five working days before the date of dispatch.

To ensure your complete satisfaction, it is recommended that you place your year-end orders before the 20th of November.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE (2/2)

The customer is responsible for the name and address of the recipient, which must be precise, exact and complete (door code, floor, telephone number, etc.) to enable delivery under normal conditions. A national telephone number and an email address are required by our carriers. Pierre Marcolini shall not be held responsible for a return delivery due to an error in the address or to the impossibility of delivering to the address indicated in the event of the recipient's absence. The recipient's telephone numbers may be used by our carriers if they have difficulties in delivering, but in no case are these numbers used to ensure the presence of the recipient before delivery. These data are strictly confidential and will never be used for any other purpose than to hand over the package to the recipient. Delivery times depend on the country of destination and the time of year. In the event of an error in the details or absence of the recipient, Pierre Marcolini shall not be held responsible for the impossibility of delivering the order.

Maison Pierre Marcolini will contact the customer to organize, according to the customer's wishes, a new order at the customer's expense, including postage and the price of the product.

Our carriers do not deliver on Saturdays / Sundays and public holidays.

We deliver to the following countries: Europe, United Kingdom, Canada, Liechtenstein, Norway, Switzerland, Iceland, United States.

Pierre Marcolini assumes the risk of loss and deterioration of the products until delivery of the said products to the addressee, provided that the addressee's delivery address is precise, accurate and complete. Upon receipt of the products, the customer must ensure that the delivery complies with his order. Any complaint must be justified and accompanied by proof of the damage suffered (waybill, photo of the package received, etc.), within 24 hours.

7. Guarantees of use-by date

The use-by date of our products is indicated on each box. In order to best appreciate our products, we advise you to choose the delivery date closest to your consumption date. Pierre Marcolini guarantees the quality and freshness of its products provided that they are kept in a cool (between 4 and 18°C depending on the product in question) and dry place, protected from light in their original packaging.

8. Applicable law

Only Belgian law is applicable to this contract and the courts of Brussels and the justice of the peace of the 7th canton of Brussels are competent in the event of a dispute.
